

VOLUNTEERISM
AND SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE:

- .To create understanding of the significance of volunteerism/voluntarism in the field of social work.
- .To identify the role of the social worker in providing access for use of volunteers in social agencies.
- .To develop skill in the enhancement of the volunteer contribution to social welfare services.
- .To develop skill in the development and management of volunteer programs.
- .To provide an opportunity to explore current issues in volunteerism.

INSTRUCTOR:

Dr. Florence S. Schwartz
Associate Professor
Hunter College School of Social Work

Dr. Schwartz has extensive experience in the field of volunteerism as a consultant and lecturer. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Volunteer Action Scholars and is Associate Editor of "Volunteer Administration".

* Staff of agencies which serve as field instruction centers for Hunter College School of Social Work may be eligible for $\frac{1}{2}$ tuition waivers. See your agency director.

HUNTER COLLEGE of the City University of New York

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

A New Course

VOLUNTEERISM AND SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

Spring 1980
3 Credits
Tuesday 6-8 p.m.
Starting February 5

129 East 79 Street
New York, New York 10021

An elective course that can be taken both by matriculated and non-matriculated students.

VOLUNTEERISM AND SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

An elective course for all School of Social Work students. Also open to non-matriculated students.

COURSE CONTENT:

THE COURSE IS DIRECTED TO:

Social workers who are considering the use of volunteers.

Social workers who work with volunteers.

Persons who recruit, assign, train, or supervise volunteers.

REGISTRATION *

For information write or phone Ms. Elizabeth Landing, Advisor for non-matriculated students at 570-5605,06.

Application forms are available at Registrar's Office Room 225, Hunter College. Write or call Graduate Non Degree Admissions, 695 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10021, Telephone 570-5157.

1. The value of volunteerism in the American Democratic Society.
2. The different functions performed by volunteers.
3. Problems of developing and administering volunteer programs.
4. Staff Development and training programs.
5. Supervision and retention of volunteers.
6. Relationship between professional staff and volunteers.
7. The constituencies of the volunteer administrator.
8. The law and volunteers.
9. Current Issues.

"Volunteering is a pillar of our Nation's internal strength, a source of its pride and a boundless reservoir of the knowledge, initiative and creativity of its people."

From Statement on Volunteers by President Carter during the Presidential election campaign of 1976.