

ASSOCIATION OF ART MUSEUM DIRECTORS

CONTRIBUTION BY VOLUNTEERS

WHEREAS, Volunteers have contributed countless hours and invaluable and diverse services in museums throughout the United States and Canada, and

WHEREAS, Volunteers have exhibited their willingness to learn from the training and example of professional museum staffs, and

WHEREAS, Volunteers have, by their services and leadership, supplemented salaried staffs and enabled museums to achieve greater goals, and

WHEREAS, Volunteers have enlarged the constituencies of museums by their representations of cross sections of the community, and

WHEREAS, Volunteers have created wide interest and involvement through outreach in their communities, now

THEREFORE, Be It Resolved that the Association of Art Museum Directors recognizes the important contribution of volunteers to the growth and development of our institutions.

January 26, 1982